O.A.R. performed in the Wright Center last Wednesday. The band brought with them an environmental message. "The Campus Consciousness Tour" is a chance to come out and show our love for the environment. The tour features initiatives and organizations that we believe deserve attention; we hope our listeners appreciate the tour and its message as much as we do," said Benji Gershman.

C: Last question, and it's a good one. What was your reaction to the presidential election results?
D: I am certainly very excited. I think it's something very historical and it's something that we should all be proud of. I wish it was all done to thank everyone that took part in the election process. It was a great tour. I think the right man won and I think his opponent is too good. He really is. I think there is a lot of excitement and an energy in the air today (post-Election Day) that is definitely not the usual Wednesday. I'm happy for everyone. Wednesday to everyone.
C: Well, thanks so much, Jerry. We enjoyed your time and good luck tonight.
D: Thanks, ladies, hope to see you tonight. We're excited!
The atmosphere is fairly Spartan, and the interior of the restaurant is not designed to impress. Rather, the unassuming decor is not designed to impress. The Samford Crimson Nothing is life quite so satisfying as the comforting knowledge that when push comes to shove, your barbecue restaurant is superior to that of your rival's. Louis Grizzard had his Sprayberry's, Memphis has the Rendezvous and students of our glorious institution have Broadway Bar-B-Q. Located at the junction of Oxmoor Road and Broadway Avenue, Broadway Bar-B-Q boasts one of the better barbecue establishments in the state: the Baker. I recommend the Pork Baker, but you are free to deviate from this suggestion at your own risk. I have dined at Broadway umpteen times and have never strayed from my original choice: the Pork Baker. This sumptuous feast consists of a beast of a baked potato topped with pulled pork, baked beans, coleslaw, cheddar cheese, butter and drowned in Broad Water's original sauce.
